

we are a premium provider of Electrical and Mechanical Security Solutions who strive to offer a professional and competitively priced service at all times.

Established since 2004, our experienced team are confident we can deliver the perfect solution for your requirements. As a young and dynamic company we have all the skills and knowledge to design protection for premises ranging from small to large enterprise.

RSB Technocrats specialise in Electrical and Mechanical Security Solutions including biometric & Audio / Visual Access Control, Gate Automation and Car Park Management Systems.

We offer a professional, highly competitive service at all times. We use the latest technology which is reliable and cost effective. We collaborate with some of the finest manufactures in the market to provide the best product and solutions to our customers.

We offer a no-obligation quotation service (contact details here) in order for you to get full costings for your project before starting.

Speak to one of our advisers today in order to discuss your requirements and get a professional opinion on the services you require.